Mr. Gerard F. Scannell, Director
Office of Federal Agency Safety Programs
Occupational Safety and Health Administration
Department of Labor
Washington, D. C. 20210

Dear Mr. Scannell:

This is in response to your letter of 9 May 1975 to Mr. F. W. M. Janney, requesting the Agency to provide statistical data on six categories of employees.

STATINTL

[REDACTED] CIA Safety Officer, has discussed this matter with you and explained the Agency's reluctance to provide a numerical breakdown of categories A, C, D and E listed on the form accompanying your letter. I appreciate your cooperation and understanding of the sensitivity of this information. The enclosed form contains the numerical breakdown of those categories of employees which [REDACTED] and you agreed would be acceptable.

STATINTL

We are awaiting with interest the development of the seven training courses you refer to in your letter and expect to use the course material in the training of Agency employees at all levels.

I wish to assure you that we are concerned with the safety and health of our employees and will continue our efforts to provide a safe and healthful working environment.

Sincerely,

/s/John F. Blake
